

The Psychology of Tournament Golf

The Psychology of Tournament Golf is a cutting edge program developed from years of work with the PGA (professional golfers association). This program will help golfers of all levels play their best when it means the most. Mental toughness, confidence, concentration, pressure management, course and practice management, serve as the foundations of the program. Over 100 PGA Tour players, 5,000 golf professionals, and thousands of amateurs have taken part in this program. The program consists of 5 audio tapes which run about 4.5 hours. It was given a 4 star rating by GOLF Magazine.
