

Life is a Game! Keys for a Light and Purposeful Life full of Joy

Do you want a lighter and more joyous life? Life is a Game! describes how to have such a life by going through three phases. If you apply the tips, you will quickly see results. These results can be: less stress, more peace, better communication, more loving relationships, attracting what you want in life and maybe even discovering the reason why you are here on planet Earth! Since the game of life is in essence a joyful and fun experience, the book contains lots of simple, day-to-day and funny analogies and metaphors to help you understand the insights being taught. You will read how monsters, teddy bears, trains, GPS systems, wicked warriors, merry minstrels and even computer games can help show you the way to a lighter and more joyful life! In Life is a Game! you will also find several tools and techniques to help you turn a stressful situation around quickly. If you are willing to go a step further, these tools can gently help resolve the causes of your stress so you may experience lasting results. Author, Jan Vermeiren shares a lot of his personal experiences not only the successes, but also the failures and the fears on both a personal and a professional level. He uses a light and humorous style with lots of self-revelation, which makes the book an easy and entertaining read! Warning: by reading this book you might not want to buy another book about personal/spiritual growth for years. Why? You may find yourself rereading every book in your library with fresh eyes so you can discover all the nuggets of gold you have overlooked over in the past :-).
