Jaces Justice Finding yourself isnt always easy unless your true mate helps you along the way Jace has always felt as though he doesnt belong, that hes surplus to requirements, alone and destined to stay that way for the rest of his life. His love for Louie, his true mate, is solid and real, but Louie has never shown Jace that theyre mates, has never given any indication that he wants them to be together. The question is, will Jace and Louie mating also change things, or will they remain the same as theyve always been, forever circling around their love and never admitting it through fear of being hurt?
