Not illustrated. 1891 edition. Excerpt: ... saw a big deer yesterday, but did not get a shot at him. White Cap, Monday, Nov. Ioth. Iyeft Cupsuptic Camp at eight oclock A. M. Went around Arnolds Bog, on the east side; found it better traveling than on the west side. I took up the traps on the Ox-bow line, and brought them in in my knapsack; there was thirty of them. I only had one sable and a partridge in them. I didnt cross any fresh tracks at all, but I saw lots of deer tracks made last night and yesterday and some very large caribou tracks, on the north end of Panther Mountain, some three or four days old. There was about one foot of snow on Panther, with a hard crust on top of it, which hurt my ankles, but the most of the way it was quite good. On arriving at camp I found Alec and Mr. Clarke had been here to-day and taken dinner, leaving me a kettle of pea-soup, which I was not long in getting away with. The gentleman that I expected to guide went to Black Pond where Clarke Hill was, and Clarke is guiding him. I am going back to Parmachenee to-morrow, as I expect to be called on to guide Mr. Deniston soon. I cut some wood to-night; some of it was green fir, and it dont burn worth a cent. Camp Cupsuptic, Tuesday, Nov. Iith. Clear and cold last night and this morning. I left White Cap this morning for Cupsuptic, with forty traps in my knapsack. Saw two deer, a doe and fawn. It was so crusty I was not looking for them, and did not see them till I heard the big one whistle and jump in the crust. I got a quick shot at the small one as he was fast disappearing, but did not hit him. I followed them about two hundred yards and saw them again, and fired three shots, but the distance and thick trees and their jumping around prevented my getting any aim. I reached camp to find Joe...
