

Life in the Aspergers Jungle

Raven Joy was 59 years old when her 34 year old son was officially diagnosed with Aspergers Syndrome. While reading about it she realized it explained her life too. This is her story about their adventures in life as undiagnosed Asperger Adults and what she learned about Aspergers Awareness. She lived on the edge of normal, and learned to cope in unusual and interesting ways. Funny, touching, life affirming, and a window into another way of being and seeing.
