

Wrath and Revenge (Wild Angels Book 4)

Rose Crest joined the family as an aid for Gazs sister Leeann. Now that Leeann is gone, Rose has come to feel safe in their lives. She does what she can to help Trina, Gaz and Michael with their twin children. Yet she longs for the two men who are in her life, but not a part of it. Char has lost his wife, and his daughter has chosen to live elsewhere. He remains for his son Lare, but his life is becoming ever lonelier. He shares a secret with his brother Jeremiel, but when the two men become involved with Rose, they are forced to reveal the truth of their relationship. Trina, Gaz and Michael are plagued by tragedy, and when the prediction Lare made five years prior comes true, their little dog Az saves not only Trinas life, but their entire future. The wrath events stir is a sin that must be dealt with by all, and the outcome is shocking.
